February 2020

Wonderland Camp

The 2020 Wonderland Camp schedule has been released and they are now taking registrations on a first-come, first-served basis. For more information, please visit wonderlandcamp.org.

If you are interested in working at or volunteering for the 2020 session, there are positions available. Applications are available at the same website listed above. If you have any questions, email them to info@wonderlandcamp.org.

If you need help affording camp this year, there are a number of charitable organizations that can assist you. The Midwest Special Needs Trust is one such organization. Feel free to check out their charitable grants at https://www.midwestspecialneedstrust.org/charitable-program/about/. If you would like more information about other groups that might be able to assist you, please contact your CCDDR Support Coordinator.

March is Developmental Disability Awareness Month!

The purpose of this awareness month is to help educate the general population about individuals with developmental disabilities and the issues that are important to them. This national observance offers a chance to learn more about the disability experience and the vital contributions people with disabilities are making in our communities.

To find out more information on how you can advocate for yourself or others, please visit https://
moddcouncil.org/dd-awareness-month/. There, you can find letters and proclamations to send to your local leaders, library and school resources to share with people in the community, and other resources and guides for helping people better understand you!
